Sidereal Planet Positions

In vedic astrology, the determination of planet positions relies on the nirayana longitude, where "Nir-Ayana" denotes no movement. Here, the ayanamsa, the precise degree difference between the moving vernal equinox and the exact sidereal zero Aries point, is subtracted from the sayana longitudes used in western astrology. Amongst the different practices used for the calculation of ayanamsa, the method used here is chitrapaksha.

Chitrapaksha Lahiri : 23° 51' 31"

Transit Prediction

Jupiter, unlike other planets, has a unique influence on the 5th and 9th houses, in addition to the 7th house, from the house it occupies. Below are the predictions for Jupiter's transit based on the ascendant (Lagna) and the moon sign (Janma Rasi).

Jupiter in Mithuna Rashi

For Pisces ascendants, Jupiter's transit through the 4th house, Sukh Bhav, promises several positive developments. The fifth house, Gemini or Mithuna, being governed by Mercury, a friend of Jupiter, augurs well for these changes. Expect an increase in strength for the mother, acquisition of land and real estate, and overall happiness and contentment within the household. Individuals may also experience enhanced influence and vitality while providing objects of happiness for their close family.

5th Aspect: With Jupiter's aspect on the 8th house, Ayur Bhav of Libra, governed by Venus, an adversary of Jupiter, individuals may experience increased vitality. Additionally, they may gain insights or benefits from the study of ancient literature or archaeology during this period.

7th Aspect: With Jupiter's aspect on the 10th house, Karma Bhav, the native house of Sagittarius, individuals may experience development and growth with the support of their father and fatherly figures. They might also earn respect among government officials and derive happiness from their employment or professional endeavors.

9th Aspect: With Jupiter's aspect on the 1st house, Tanu Bhav of Aquarius, governed by Saturn, individuals may find themselves spending more money during this period, much of which might be for disagreeable purposes. Additionally, they may have connections to foreign lands, albeit with some lack of interest or indifference.

Jupiter Transiting Twelfth House From Your Janma Rasi

During Jupiter's transit through the twelfth house from Chandra Rashi, individuals may encounter a series of challenges and adversities that impact various aspects of life. This period is marked by a sense of grief and uncertainty, often leading to a forced departure from one's native place and separation from family members. Difficulties, sorrow, and tedious journeys characterize this time, contributing to financial losses and increased expenditure. Ill health and anxiety may prevail, accompanied by a decline in social position and employment status, potentially leading to poverty and financial difficulties. Property loss and scarcity of money further compound the challenges faced during this transit. Individuals may find themselves grappling with incurable ailments or wounds (Granthi), as well as facing unwanted enemies that instill fear and hesitation. Hurdles in journeys and an increase in problems underscore the overall sense of adversity and struggle during this period. Despite these challenges, perseverance and resilience are essential to navigate through this challenging phase. However during this period, there's a potential for foreign luck, opening up opportunities and experiences from afar. Furthermore, isolation for self-improvement or transformation may occur, allowing for deep introspection and personal growth.

The transit of planets through Rashi yields both favorable and unfavorable results, contingent upon the individual's house placement relative to their Janma Rashi (natal moon sign), where the transit occurs. Occasionally, these positive and negative effects are nullified by the positioning of other transiting planets in particular houses relative to the Janma Rashi. When the positive influences of a transiting planet are nullified, it is called Gochar Vedha, and likewise, when the negative impacts arising from the transiting planet are neutralized, it's termed Vipareetha Vedha.

The anticipated negative effects of Jupiter's transit through the 12th house are nullified due to the simultaneous transit of Mercury, Venus, Mars and Ketu through the 2nd house relative to your Janma Rashi Karka, which serves as a 'Vedha Sthana' for Jupiter. This cancellation of unfavourable results is termed as 'Vipareeth Vedha'. The specific durations of the transits of Mercury, Venus, Mars and Ketu that result in the cancellation of non-beneficial effects are given below:

Planet	Start	End	Duration
Budha	Aug 30, 2025	Sep 15, 2025	15 days

A zodiac sign comprises two and a half portions of Nakshatras, and Jupiter moves through these Nakshatras at various intervals, leading to fluctuations in the effects of Jupiter's transit. Moreover, according to the Ashtakavarga concept, each Rashi is divided into eight Kakshyas, corresponding to seven planets and the Lagna, in the sequence of Saturn, Jupiter, Mars, Sun, Venus, Mercury, Moon, and Lagna. Additionally, retrograde effects, Gochar Vedha or Vipareetha Vedha, and Nakshatra Vedha also play a role in influencing the outcomes provided by the transiting planet. Below are the predictions and corresponding dates for the aforementioned information in regard to Jupiter's transit:

Jupiter Transiting First House From Your Janma Rasi

However, amidst these challenges, there are opportunities for growth and development. Individuals may find themselves drawn to spiritual pursuits and inclined towards expanding knowledge in areas such as wealth management, women's studies, sexuality, and medicine. This newfound interest could lead to pursue these subjects with vigor. Despite the obstacles, one will strive for better health and well-being, working towards enhancing physical and mental fitness.
