Sidereal Planet Positions

In vedic astrology, the determination of planet positions relies on the nirayana longitude, where "Nir-Ayana" denotes no movement. Here, the ayanamsa, the precise degree difference between the moving vernal equinox and the exact sidereal zero Aries point, is subtracted from the sayana longitudes used in western astrology. Amongst the different practices used for the calculation of ayanamsa, the method used here is chitrapaksha.

Chitrapaksha Lahiri : 24° 12' 34"

Rahu-Ketu Analysis in Your Birth Chart

In Vedic astrology, Rahu and Ketu are considered to be shadow planets or 'chaya grahas'. They are not physical objects like the other planets in the solar system, but rather are mathematical points that are considered to have astrological significance.

According to Hindu mythology, Rahu is the head of an asura (demon) who was immortalized after drinking the nectar of the Gods. Ketu, on the other hand, represents the body, which was cut off by the God Vishnu after the asura's head had already been immortalized.

Rahu and Ketu do not move in the same way as the other planets. Instead, they move backwards (always retrograde) through the zodiac, in a direction opposite to the other planets. Rahu and ketu take approximately 18 years to complete one full orbit around the zodiac, and they spend about 1.5 years in each sign.

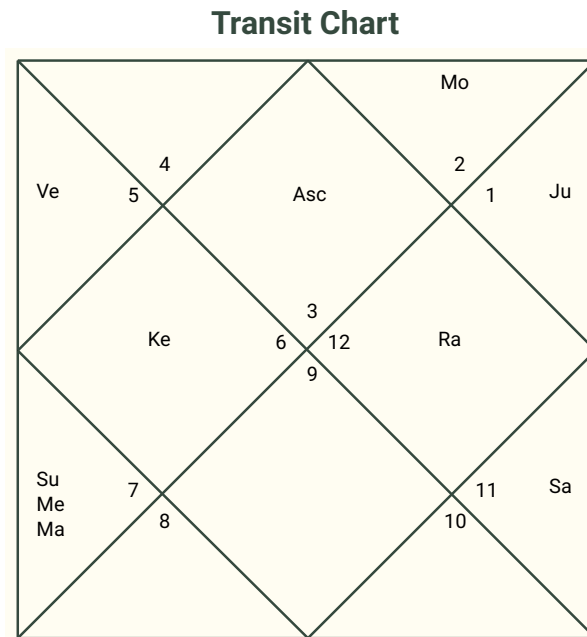

Rahu in Tenth House

When Rahu is positioned in the 10th house, it bestows fame upon the individual. However, they may have a limited number of offspring and tend to involve themselves in others' affairs. This placement can make the individual fearless, but they may lack virtues and be inclined towards conflict. Rahu in the 10th house may elevate the native to a position of leadership within a public body or group, granting scholarly or warrior-like qualities, as well as potential wealth.

Ketu in Fourth House

Ketu in the fourth house can make a native leave its motherland and find its life in some foreign lands. This placement might also make the native bereft of lands, close relatives, property or vehicles. The fourth house is considered as the Sukha and the Bandhu bhava, therefore, Ketu's placement here is not often an auspicious one for the native. Such a placement can make the native a gossip monger and enjoy spreading secrets of others. This placement might even make the native mentally disturbed and face difficulties in his or her education. It can also result in a strained relationship with the native's mother.

Transit of Rahu & Ketu

Rahu and Ketu are transiting through Meena Rashi and Kanya Rashi, respectively, from October 30, 2023, to May 18, 2025. This transit will be through the 7th House for Rahu and the 7th House for Ketu, counted from your Janma Rashi Meena. Rahu and Ketu are Thambra Moorthy for you, resulting in a moderate reduction in the manifestation of these positive effects.

Rahu and Ketu will stay in Meena Rashi and Kanya Rashi, respectively, for 1 year, 6 months and 18 days

The next Rahu and Ketu transit is on May 18, 2025, when Rahu will move to Kumbha Rashi and Ketu to Simha Rashi.

Disclaimer: Rahu and Ketu are traditionally viewed as malefic planets, which is why their transit predictions often tend to highlight challenging outcomes. The effects of any planetary transit, whether positive or negative, can be altered or mitigated by various factors, such as the aspects received from other planets, the planet's dignity in an individual's birth chart, and the impact of other ongoing transits, to name a few.

These predictions are meant to provide insight into potential areas of life where the effects of Rahu and Ketu may manifest during their transit, as mentioned in astrological scriptures. We strongly encourage users to view this information as a guide for taking necessary preventive steps rather than feeling anxious or alarmed by the forecasts.

Impact of Rahu's Transit in Your First House

When Rahu is in the first house, the native may encounter some challenges and occasional health issues. These might lead to some stress and worry, but maintaining a positive mindset and seeking holistic approaches could help the native to overcome this phase. There could be minor setbacks or losses, but with caution, these can be managed. The influence of Rahu may also bring some unusual experiences or a sense of vulnerability to negative energies. Additionally, parents might face a few difficulties during this period. Overall, this phase requires careful attention and proactive measures to ensure well-being.

Impact of Ketu's Transit in Your Seventh House

When Ketu is in the seventh house, the native may face challenges in relationships, particularly in romantic intimacy, which can lead to misunderstandings. Health issues, especially for female natives, may arise, requiring medical attention.

Unmarried individuals might form emotional connections with someone from a different background, with external pressures influencing marriage decisions. Careful thought is advised when dealing with such matters.

The native should be cautious near water and take extra precautions when traveling. Emotional stress related to extended family or the spouse's family may also occur. Frequent but seemingly unproductive travels could lead to feelings of aimlessness, making it important to stay focused and channel energy into constructive activities.

Impact of Rahu's Transit through Pisces (Meena)

Gemini ascendants will experience this transit in the tenth house, Karma bhava, a sector associated with father, career, public status, state, society, etc. This falls under the jurisdiction of Jupiter an enemy of Rahu. There are possibilities that the native will face major problems in matters related to his/her father along with loss in reputation and influence among the state and society. The native may find himself/herself facing adversities in matters of state, society, and business from time to time, but will gain external support to make the situation better. There are possibilities that the native may feel a difference between the internal and external aspects of respect and reputation. However, the influence of an auspicious and wise planet Jupiter will lead the native toward success through a righteous path.

Impact of Ketu's Transit through Virgo (Kanya)

In the Gemini ascendant chart, this transit happens through the fourth house, Sukh Bhava, which governs the matters of household, mother, comfort, domestic life, emotional well-being, etc. This house falls under the rulership of Budh/Mercury a friend of Ketu. An individual in this period of planetary passage will have an audacious life, full of challenges and solutions. To attain peace in the domestic environment he/she will use strategies and tactics. Due to the presence of the cruel planet Ketu in this sign, possibilities arise that there might be some deficiencies in maternal happiness, land and property, and disharmony in domestic life. However, there are positives to this as well, as Ketu in the Virgo sign is treated as if it were in its own house, it is bound to have good effects, and therefore, all the adversities mentioned above will be overcome by the native on every occasion. He/she will strive for happiness, and eventually gain it through the usage of perseverance.

Gochar Vedha

The transit of planets through Rashi yields both favorable and unfavorable results, contingent upon the individual's house placement relative to their Janma Rashi (natal moon sign), where the transit occurs. Occasionally, these positive and negative effects are nullified by the positioning of other transiting planets in particular houses relative to the Janma Rashi. When the positive influences of a transiting planet are nullified, it is called Gochar Vedha, and likewise, when the negative impacts arising from the transiting planet are neutralized, it's termed Vipareetha Vedha.

Rahu

No Gochar Vedha or Vipareetha Vedha is occurring for Rahu during this transit.

Ketu

No Gochar Vedha or Vipareetha Vedha is occurring for Ketu during this transit.

Remedies

Rahu and Ketu, the shadow planets in Vedic astrology, are known for their karmic influence and can bring challenges in life. Remedies to counter their effects often include chanting mantras, wearing or donating gemstones like Gomed and Cat's Eye, performing rituals and pujas, and making specific offerings to reduce their malefic energies and restore balance. Some of these remedies, as outlined in Vedic texts, are as follows:

गोमेन्द्रत्नं च तुरंगमश्च सुनीलचैलानि च कंबलानि ।
तिलश्च तैलं खलु लोहमिश्रं स्वर्भानवे दानमिदं वदन्ति । ।
वैडूर्यरत्नं सतिलं च तैलं सुकंबलश्चापि मदो मृगस्य ।
शस्त्रं च केतोः परितोषहेतो रुदीरितं दानमिदं मुनिन्द्रैः । ।

As indicated in the preceding Sanskrit shlokas, the following donations or offerings can help mitigate the negative effects of Rahu and Ketu in one's birth chart:

Offerings to Appease Rahu:
